PUBLIC COMMENT

OKANOGAN COUNTY JUVENILE DEPARTMENT UPDATES:

Okanogan County Juvenile Department Administrator Dennis Rabidou, Judge Hank Rawson and dependency unit manager Tara Serles were present to give updates about the OCJD. They reviewed the processes of the juvenile court system as well as their risk assessment processes. They specifically wanted to reach out to the City to be sure that all needs in the community are being met with respect to the youth from our area. They thanked the City and our Police Department for their participation in the drug court programs as well as the truancy boards. They encouraged anyone to contact them with any specific questions, concerns or recommendations.

NORTH CENTRAL REGIONAL LIBRARY:

Barbara Walters, Director of the NCRL, presented to discuss the 2019-2021 Strategic Plan for the libraries in our communities. She stated that libraries are not just about books now and they are excited for the future and upcoming programs they hope to offer in the years to come, including more technology, expanded programs as well as enhanced materials. She encouraged the Mayor, Council and citizens of Brewster to contact her with any ideas or questions.

SARANJIT BASSI – RETAIL MARIJUANA SHOP DISCUSSION:

Mr. Saranjit Bassi presented to Council to ask for the reconsideration of allowing retail marijuana stores within the City limits of Brewster. He says the City would benefit from the tax revenue as well as benefiting the patrons of our community that are having to travel to other towns to purchase products. He stated that he owns two stores currently, and would like Council to consider allowing them in Brewster. He also understands that there are strict requirements when these stores are allowed in communities and he is more than willing to work with the City and comply in every way possible.

Council Member Rieb stated that as a former law enforcement officer, he is strongly opposed to this. Council Member Housden stated that he would not want to change any of the current requirements regarding zoning. City Attorney Chuck Zimmerman suggested that Mr. Bassi come back to Council with a more detailed plan of what he is proposing, and that the City will review their current Ordinance and discuss it further at the Council Meeting in July. Mr. Bassi agreed to do this and further discussion will be held at the July 10th City Council Meeting.
CHIEF OF POLICE NATTALIE CARIKER:

DEPARTMENT UPDATES AND STATS:

Chief Cariker reviewed the department stats and updates for the month of May. She noted that Lieutenant Kelly Hook has retired after 28 years of service to the citizens of Brewster, and she thanked him for this. She also noted that Officer Coble is now working for the Sheriff’s office. She will be conducting testing for the applicants who have applied for the open positions.
